Synopsis

In a world where humanity and the supernatural coexist, Not His Werewolf is a hilarious romantic comedy adventure that tells the story of an unlikely encounter between a human woman and a werewolf with a knack for getting into trouble.

Claire is a down-to-earth nurse who has never believed in werewolves. But when she stumbles upon a wounded one in the woods, her life takes an unexpected turn. Aiden, the werewolf, is not like any she has ever heard of before. He's clumsy, sarcastic, and has a knack for finding himself in the most ridiculous situations.

As Claire helps Aiden recover, they find themselves drawn to each other despite their different worlds. However, their love is forbidden, and the supernatural community is determined to keep them apart. But Claire and Aiden are not ones to give up easily. They team up to overcome obstacles, battle ancient prejudices, and prove that love can conquer even the most supernatural of barriers.

Book Excerpts

"You're a werewolf?" Claire asked, her eyes wide with disbelief.

Aiden chuckled, revealing his sharp canines. "Yes, my dear. And you're a human. How's that for an unlikely pair?"

"You know, for a werewolf, you're surprisingly clumsy," Claire said, rolling her eyes.

Aiden shrugged, a sheepish grin on his face. "What can I say? I'm a natural-born klutz."

"We come from different worlds, Aiden," Claire said softly. "This can't happen."

Aiden reached for her hand, his gaze intense. "But it's already happening, Claire. We can't deny our feelings."
