

Reminiscences of the Dolphins Glory Years: Tales from the Team

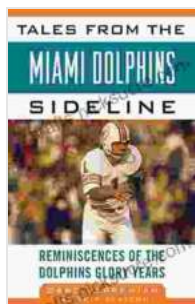

The Early Years

The Miami Dolphins were founded in 1966 as an expansion team. The team struggled in its early years, posting a losing record in each of its first three seasons. However, in 1969, the Dolphins hired Don Shula as their head coach. Shula quickly turned the team around, leading the Dolphins to a 10-4 record in his first season.

Shula's Dolphins continued to improve in the early 1970s, and in 1972, they won their first Super Bowl. The Dolphins defeated the Washington Redskins 14-7 in Super Bowl VII, and they became the first team to ever finish a season undefeated and untied.

The Perfect Season

The Dolphins' perfect season in 1972 was one of the most dominant performances in NFL history. The team outscored its opponents by an average of 26 points per game, and it allowed just 123 points all season. The Dolphins' defense was particularly impressive, led by Hall of Famers Bob Griese, Larry Csonka, and Jake Scott.
